Our theater was built in 1953, combining three smaller theatrical companies, Granger, Hinckley, and Sharon Center. On stage now is the play 1973-74, with a cast of hundreds. In our program, we will attempt to illustrate to you the behind-the-scenes and on-stage happenings of the Highland Players.

Pregame features Homecoming Court. A

(A) This year's Homecoming game against South Amherst ended in an 18-0 Hornet victory. Before the game attendants (B) Renee Buckingham, Sioux Snyder, (C) Gay Moore, Cathy Gerspacher, (D) Lisa Perkins, and Linda Alber were escorted around the field. (E) Jenny Depas was crowned by co-captains Gary Lutner and Guy Konyha. (F) Carrying the game ball and the crown were Tim Florian and Heidi Dzur. (G) Queen Jenny was driven around the field in a Rolls Royce to end the pregame ceremony.

Juniors transform gym into "Oriental Gardens".

The 1973 Homecoming theme was "Oriental Gardens". As Queen Jenny (A) reigned over her gardens, Timmy Florian and Heidi Dzur (B) danced to the music of Surprise. Football co-captains Guy Konyha and Gary Luttner (C) presented Jenny with the crown and roses. Many couples enjoyed dancing (D), while others took advantage of the refreshments served in the dining room (E). The 1973 Homecoming Court (F) consisted of Renee Buckingham, Gay Moore, Cathy Gerspacher, Linda Alber, Lisa Perkins, Sioux Snyder, Heidi Dzur, Tim Florian and Jenny Depas.

All great plays need muscle backstage, so we selected the mighty Hornet athletes to be our stage crew. To be a part of the stage crew, one must support Highland 1973-74 with pride, strength, will power, and above all determination.

Our new Cross Country team got off to a great start (A) under the direction of Coach Don Bates. Outstanding runners on the varsity team were Dan Marrone (B) and Bob Chaffee (C). The best time was run by captain Pat Napier (D). The varsity and JV runners (E) put out a great effort this year, and helped to establish a winning Cross Country team at Highland.

Young Hornets are on their way to the top.

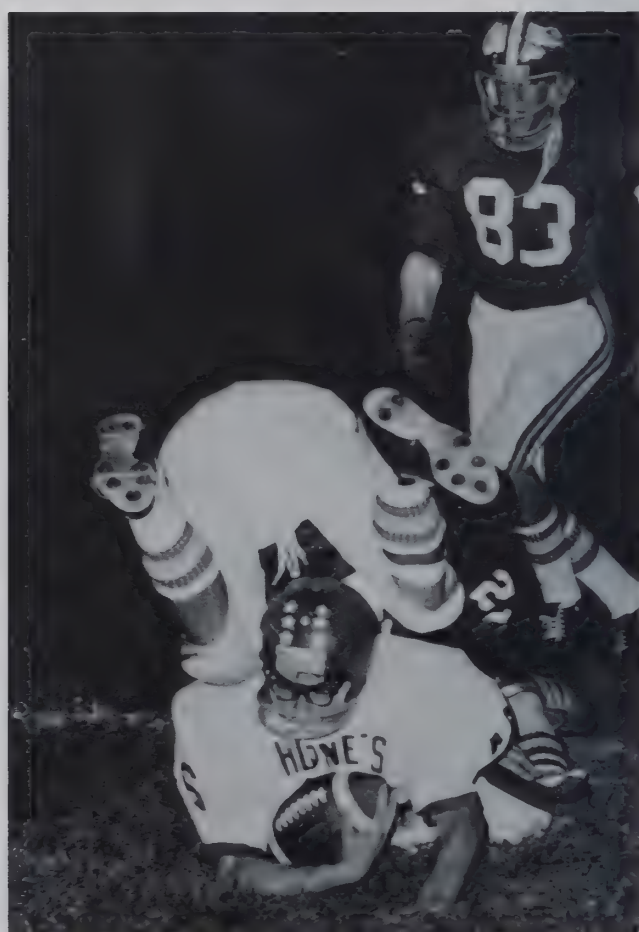

The 1973 Hornets made up with speed and quickness what they lacked in size and experience. A leading sophomore, Jim Kendel, consistently plowed up the middle behind the blocks thrown by his teammates. (A) Representing Highland on the field before the kickoff were co-captains Guy Konyha and Gary Luttner (B). Outstanding performers in every game were Guy Konyha (C) and halfback Randy Chimento (D). The team, under Head Coach Ring, ended the season with a 7-2-1 record, and tied for second place in the Inland Conference. The coaching staff included Mr. Poetter, Mr. Schiele, Mr. Ring, Mr. Vodika, Mr. Cutler, and (not pictured) Mr. Campbell (F).

Freshman and JV teams gain valuable experience.

The Junior Varsity team did double duty as extras on the varsity team, although much of their time at the varsity games was spent giving encouragement to the men on the field. (A) The Freshman team (B) coached by Mr. Dawson and Mr. Campbell, ended the season with a 4-3 record. Working as manager for all the teams was Richard Feightner (C), who also assisted in preparing the field for the games.

Cheerleaders Vital To Hornets' Spirit

The leaders in enthusiasm for the school were the varsity cheerleaders (A). Their responsibilities throughout the school year include decorating the halls, locker rooms and gym, leading cheers during games and pep assemblies (B), providing refreshments for the players and serving as hostesses for some school functions. Members of the varsity squad were (C) Pam Barnes, Joyce Witten, Karen Jones, Rene Roach, Marlene Leveskas and Jenny Depas (captain). Junior varsity cheerleaders were Ann Dwyer, Debbie Schraitle, Cathy Simpson, Kyle Coles and Diane Brantner. The two squads practice twice a week and are supervised by Mrs. Ludwig.

Comeback Season For Hornet Cagers

After a shaky start the Varsity basketball team came back to make the 1973-74 season one of enjoyment for the players as well as the fans. The inexperienced roundballs found themselves with one win against six defeats at the Christmas break. With a combination of hustling defense and torrid shooting the Hornets won eight of their remaining thirteen games. The season was highlighted by the win over Avon in the sectional tournament, marking the first tournament victory in 17 years.

Young Hornets Improve

Mr. Clifford's Junior Hornets showed promise for future teams of Highland. Although the young team struggled in their search for victory, noted improvement was made throughout the season. The Freshman basketball season was highlighted by a victory over a strong Buckeye squad. This made the first time that a Highland freshman team has beaten Buckeye in six years.

Hornet Matmen Stun Area Wrestlers

Victory was the key word for the Hornet wrestlers and their new coach, Mr. Florian. Although the team was made up of mostly underclassmen, the wrestling team was led to victory at the Brunswick Invitational with 4 first place champs, 1 second place and 1 fourth place. The successful season is not a one year thing, as we will only be losing our one senior Jerry Dillworth. As Coach Florian would say, "Highland wrestlers are a combination of dedication, talent, determination and a great deal of courage which enables them to take the mat with anyone in the state of Ohio and walk off as proud as they walked on. Being their coach has been a high point of my life.

The Highland Matmen ended the season with an 11-0-1 record. We not only had an undefeated season, we also had an undefeated wrestler, junior Dave Cavanaugh, 24-0.

New to the wrestling team this year was the LHS Club. They decorated lockers before each match and went to the matches to cheer the team on to V-I-C-T-O-R-Y.

Coached by Mr. Dave Vodika, the junior Hornets showed promising talent for future varsity teams. Out of 7 matches the J.V. matmen won 5. They also took 1st place at the Cloverleaf Invitational. Each wrestler on the J.V. team also had a Lil'Sis, who decorated his locker and went to the matches to cheer him on.

Organized Girls' Sports Come to Highland.

Highland had many young girls participating in Inland Conference sports. Girls' sports in the conference included softball, volleyball and basketball. This marked the first year for league competition and it proved to be very successful. The girls fared well and showed much promise for the future. The volleyball team, coached by Miss Gowe, had a 6-6 record. This team consisted mostly of freshmen, so Miss Gowe is already looking forward to the next season. The softball team, which played its games in the fall, was also led by Miss Gowe and achieved a 2-4 record. Mr. Schiere, coach of the girls' basketball team commented that inspite of the girls' 0-9 record, he felt they had played well and had learned much this season.

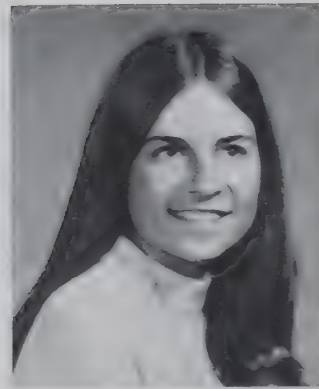

The cast of any play consists of many types of individuals and personalities. The "cast" of our "play" is the entire student body. We take up a big part of the stage, consisting of 850 stars. Some of us have the leads, but most of us have the common parts. The play cannot go on without us, as we make up the majority of the school. In this play, everyone has his debut; his chance to make it on his own under the lights.

Juniors go to court for their play

The Junior Class play, "Twelve Angry Jurors," was directed by Mrs. Bender, who was presented with roses by the cast, represented by Jim Pocka and Cliff Bender. (B) The jury had to decide whether or not a boy was guilty of murder. In the jury there were people of all sorts, with Juror No. 9 (Greg Gummere) an old man, No. 12 (Kathy Schmelzer) a business woman, and No. 10 (Leslie Ciammaichella) a bigot. (A) No. 2 (Kyle Coles) produced a few laughs and listened to everybody (C) while No. 5 (Kevin French) changed his mind frequently. (E) The climax came when No. 3 (Jim Pocka) tried to kill No. 8 (Cliff Bender). (F) And the crew helped with the production. (D)

Freshmen receive instruction from Mr. Puehler.

One of the most important parts of our play, is the part in which every student may become active in a club or organization. This part, titled "A Play Within a Play" with every club a play, with their own cast and directors. From Ski Club to Varsity-H this is by-far the best part of our theatrical play.

N.H.S. Shows the Way

Our National Honor Society consisted of 12 seniors and was advised by Mr. Segrist. The meetings were led by President Bob Chaffee. Karen Jones took care of the secretary chores, Pat Napier counted the money in the treasury and Vice-President, Gary Luttner, filled in where necessary. The N.H.S. sold windbreakers this spring in order to raise money for current expenses such as honor pins for the inductees and honor cords for the graduating Seniors.

Y-Teens Add the Fun

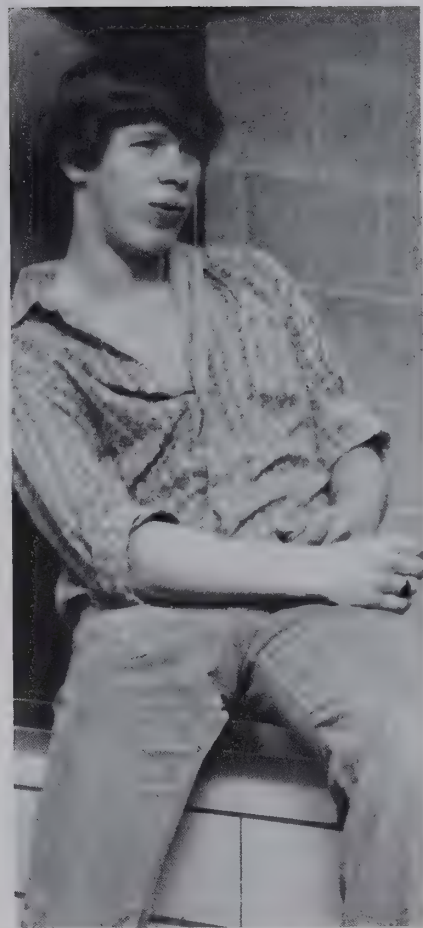

Y-Teens is an active group of young girls advised by Mrs. Hege and Miss Friedstrom. To build up the treasury the girls sold Valentine carnations. The sale was very successful and added a little extra to Valentine's Day at Highland. Y-Teens is one of the largest clubs in our school. The club meets once a month and the meetings are led by officers Sharon Papp, Julie John, Jenny Egbers, Kathy Schmeltzer, Nanette Moore and Marylin Dixon.

Student Council Events Highlight Year

Throughout the school year, Student Council members made available a variety of activities for the students to get involved in, such as the debate club. The newest thing brought to Highland was the "50's" dance and day. The day of the dance many students dressed in the style of the Fifties. At the dance, a band played many of the "Oldies" from the "50's". There was another E.F.F.E. day with many new courses. Student Council was led by Tom Becker and the advisor was Mr. Florian.

Ski Club Students On the Slopes

Over sixty members of ski Club spent six Monday nights skiing at Boston Mills. They left right after school with Mr. Fraraccio driving the bus. Once there, they had one hour of lessons and two and a half hours of free skiing. The last day, the club was presented with a large chocolate cake and extra skiing.

Advisors were Mr. Poetter and Mr. Rinker. Officers were Sara Nell and Judy Gaj. Carol Effinger, vice-president, is not shown.

F.T.A. is Teaching School

It may be many years till any members become teachers, but they are getting experience now. Many students, including Laurie Marikis go to the Middle School to help Mrs. McNeil with her class. Janet Malek, president, and other officers have planned a day in the Spring when Juniors and Seniors will teach classes in the High School, Middle School and Elementary school.

YES, WE HAVE TALENT AT HIGHLAND

Announcers Don Hanna and Rex Parker eased tension by their humorous style of introducing those who displayed talent.

Judy and Steve Sutton showed us a superb FIRST PLACE COMEDY ON Talent Night here in Highland's Gym. (A) It was a thoroughly enjoyable night for all those who saw their classmates display talent. Sue Smouse took second place with a sprite floor exercise. (B) Although Tom Becker and Sarah Nell didn't place, their enthusiasm should be taken as an example by all. (C) The Barber Shop Quartet, placing third showed us we do have good male voices, if only everyone exerted themselves as these people did. (E)

E

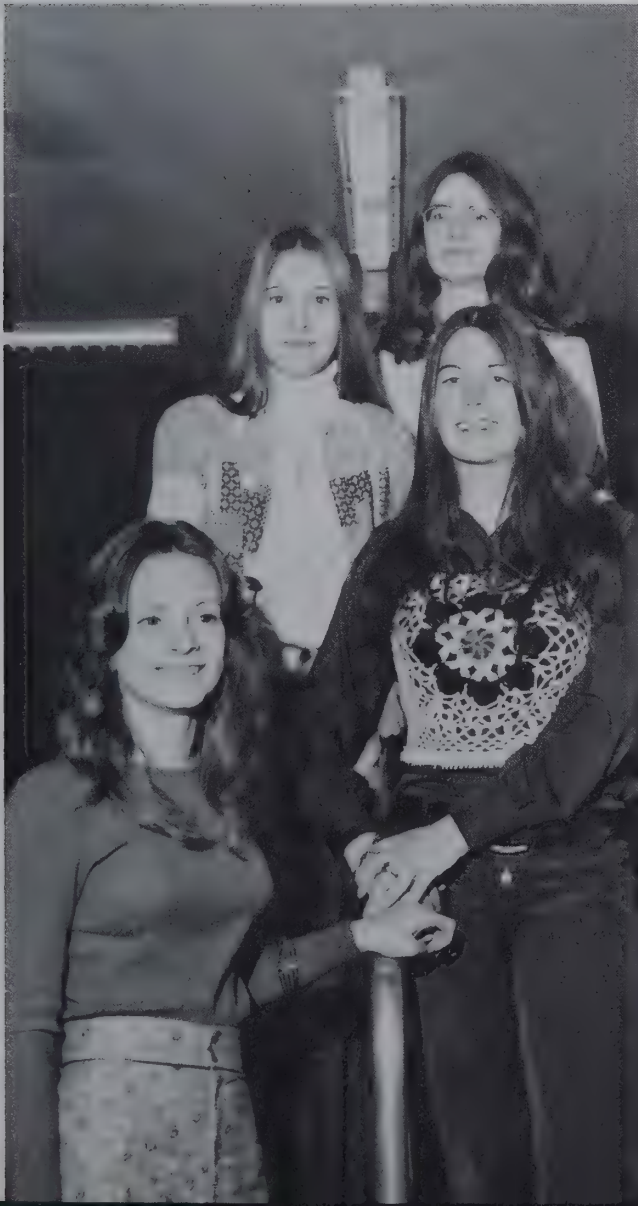

Language Clubs Learn of other Countries

German Club new to this year's activities experimented in the German culture, food, and life-style. Officers were Pam Barnes, Kyle Coles, Cathy Simmons, and JoAnn Dunca. Along with the usual club activities, Spanish Club sponsored International Day for all language clubs.

Latin Club had its annual Christmas party and summer picnic. Officers of Spanish Club were Debbie Schratle, Carol Simmons, Karen Jones and Jenny Egbers. Latin Club officers were Ferris Brown, Marv Kay, Kirchner and Carol Sprague. Advisors were Mrs. Clifford, Miss Chiarmonte, and Mrs. Wolf.

Office, Guidance, Cafeteria, and Library Aides Help School to Function Smoothly.

The extra help and time that many students give to help our school run more smoothly often goes unnoticed by the rest of us. Girls spent their study halls helping the secretaries. (A) Students helped our librarians reorganize the media center. (B) Several boys worked during the lunch hour to keep the dining room and kitchen in good shape. (D)

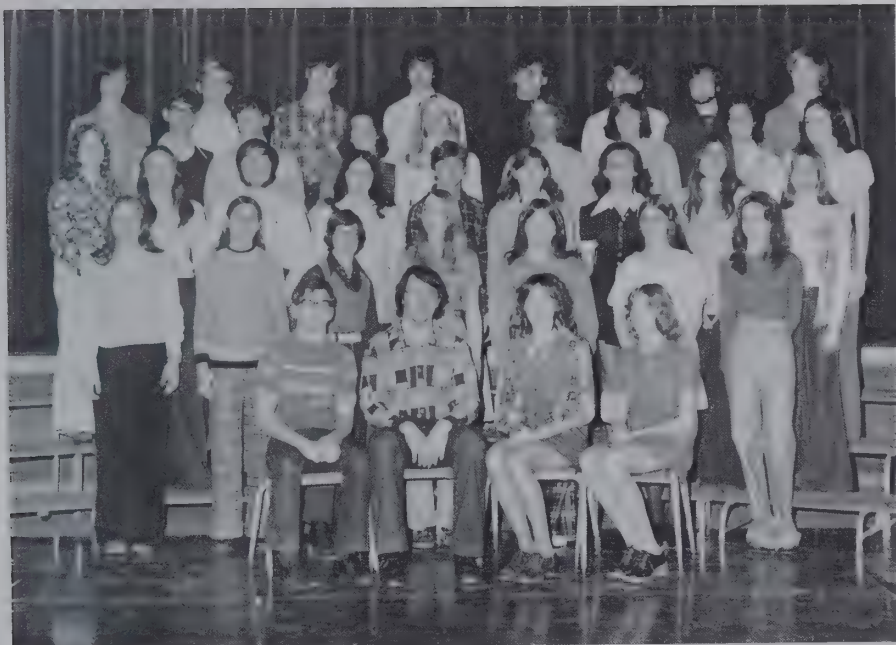

D

Highland Homemakers Keep Busy

F.H.H. held their annual Father-Daughter Banquet at Thanksgiving and The Mother-Daughter Banquet at Christmas time. They visited Pearlview Nursing Home in Copley on January 3rd. They also held a Spring Fling dance in March. F.H.H. had 4 new officers, including a second president, a corresponding secretary, an historian, and a publicity chairman.

Youth For Christ Promotes Christian- ity in Everyday Life.

Youth For Christ met at members' homes one Tuesday evening a month. Among their activities were the Penny Queen contest and the annual October Burger Bash. Janet Malek represented Highland as candidate for Penny Queen.

G.A.A. Places Main Emphasis on Bowling.

The Bowling League was the only organized activity for the girls this year because of the gas shortage. Girls were able to participate in interscholastic sports sponsored by the athletic department, however.

Varsity-H Joins Two New Sports

The Varsity-H club received many new members from a young football team and new cross-country and track teams. The club sold T-shirts again, had their annual picnic and, of course, spent many spare hours working out on the weight machine.

Auto Club Learns Car Mechanics

Auto Club sponsors car washes and change tires for people with the help of advisor Don Bates.

Chess and A.V. Clubs Get Students Involved

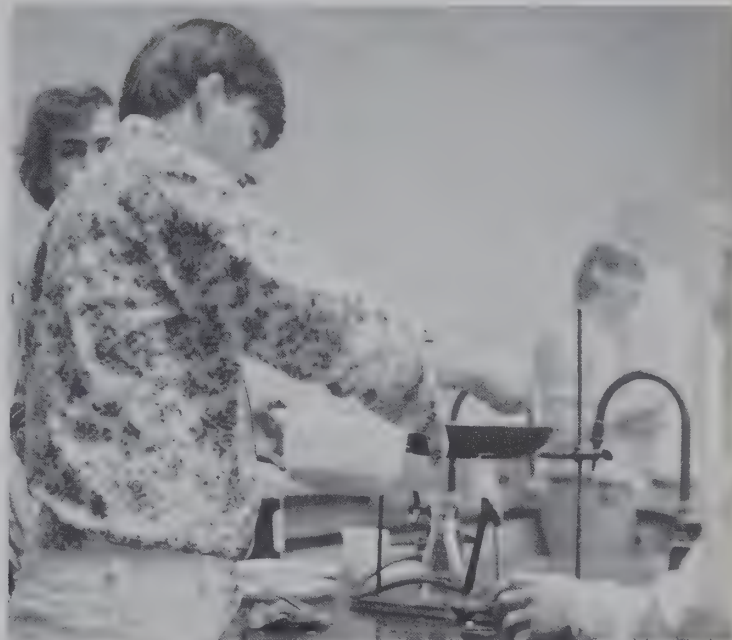

Chess club met on occasional Wednesday nights after school to practice. President Sam Bridle had members participate in different tournaments throughout the year. They won a trophy and other awards. A new system of checking out projectors and record players was carried out by members of the A.V. Club. They also take care of this equipment and set it up for classes.

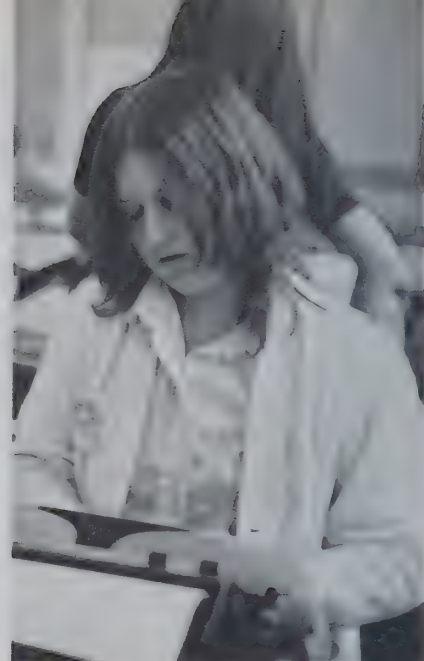

Science Club Promotes Science Fair

Under the direction of Mr. Temple, the science club went over to the Middle School of promote the science fair which they also organized and helped judge. Members also organized and helped judge. Members also planned a field trip to N.A.S.A. and cooked breakfast in the Chemistry lab several times.

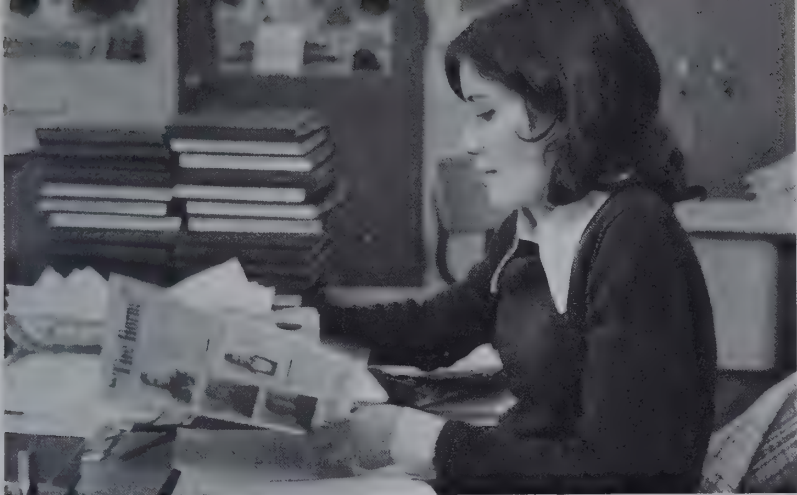

Yearbook Staff Fights To Make Deadlines

The 1974 Highlander staff met daily during the last 2 modules, which enabled them to put out their first spring annual in several years. Although the book will not include spring activities, all senior subscribers will receive a senior supplement to the annual, and those activities will be presented in the 1975 edition. Representatives from the new publishers, Wm. J. Keller and the new photographer from Contemporary Studios were Mr. Urian and Mr. Mihalko.

Hornet Staff Brings School News to Students

Many hours of thought and hard work by Mrs. Bettes and her staff resulted in a very enjoyable newspaper. The biggest difference was in the name of the paper, which changed from "Stinger" to "The Hornet". Some of the articles featured were "Wheels of the Month," "Dear Hilda", and "For Frosh." the Hornet was printed monthly by Mr. Nash and the Graphics Arts classes.

Sing along with Choir

Mr. Ruddock divided the students of music into two separate choirs for 1974. The Acapella choir was for the more advanced musicians and performed a Christmas Concert, which included many selections from the Messiah, a Sacred Concert, and a Spring Music Festival. Many students from the Acapella choir competed in solo and ensemble contests and received high ratings.

The Symphonic Choir consisted mainly of freshmen and sophomores and also performed in the Christmas and Spring concerts. These Students worked hard to improve their ability and enjoy music.

Ensembles and Glee Clubs Brighten Our School

With Mr. Ruddock supervising, five ensembles and glee clubs performed for various audiences. Members of Men's Glee sang for the talent show and at other concerts. Mixed Ensembles went to various rest homes and churches, singing for people there. Girls Ensemble sang at the Winter Concert and plan on performing at the Spring Concert. Stage Band played for us at our Christmas concert and were featured at the Spring Frolic. Girls Glee performed at the Winter Concert and also plan to sing at the Spring Concert. 100 Ensemble and Glee

1973 Hornet Band Highlights Halftime

Performing at pregame and half-time activities, our Hornet band added excitement through music to the atmosphere. (A,B) The key to the band's success on the field was the line leaders (C) and head majorette Linda Alber (D). Preparing the band for performances was Mr. Puehler, often assisted by the band officers, Tim Yokum, Janet Malek, Donna Kirchner, and Sandy Ziebro (E). The majorettes were Terri Barndt, Carol Sprague, Luann Alber, Linda Alber, Terri Rebick, Renee Buckingham and Terri Rowe. (F)

Every great play must have good direction and prompting to make the play enjoyable. To fill this task we have chosen our faculty and administration. A school without teachers is not a complete school, the same way that a play is not a play without directors and prompters. Without the help of these people the cast could not perform.

Lewin O. Vermillion, Superintendent

As the 1974 year comes to a close, our superintendent, Lewin O. Vermillion, is retiring. He has been Superintendent of Highland Schools since the Sharon, Hinckley and Granger schools merged in 1952. After graduating from Findlay College, he taught and coached in the Savannah Schools in Ashland County.

He was Superintendent at Sharon School. Mr. Vermillion taught the first Consumer Living course at Highland. We would like to say, "Thank you and good luck!" to a man who has devoted 31 years of his life to education.

Administrators Supervise School Operation.

During his second year at Highland, Mr. John Breese, Principal, worked closely with his assistant, Mr. Thomas Brenner, for the education and activities of the students. Mr. Art Clevidence, assistant Superintendent, was responsible for building, and grounds maintenance, transportation, and employee negotiations. New to the Guidance department was Mr. James Florian, who with Mr. Barbara Dzur helped students with schedules and applications for the Joint Vocational School. Secretary for the Unit Office was Mrs. Winter, and for the Administrative office was Mr. Anderson. Mrs. Evelyn Brunskill, school board clerk and her assistant, Mrs. Lola Webster managed school finances.

E

A reorganization of the English department gave seniors the opportunity to choose between Science Fiction, British Literature, Mythology, and other literature and grammar courses. Teachers participating in these and regular underclass English courses were Mrs. Bender, Mrs. Ludwig, and Mrs. Glick (A), and Mr. Keating, Mrs. Wolf, Mrs. Heath and Mrs. Hege (C). Many seniors chose the British Literature course taught by Mrs. Ludwig (B), which was carried over from the old curriculum. Two new faces in the Media Center were Mrs. Bohai and Mrs. Kent (D). Students learned to study independently and to help each other through panel discussions (E) and through use of the Media Center.

Social Studies Probe Past and Present Life.

World and American History students benefited from the knowledge of four teachers during the first semester. Teaming up for these courses were Mr. Cranston and Mr. Cutler and their student teachers. Mr. Schreiber and Miss Tyler, (A) These classes were larger, but were made more enjoyable by the small group work and simulation games. (B) Mr. Campbell taught Economics and Civics while Mr. Keck continued his instruction of Family Living. (C) Not pictured is Mr. Sigrist, who worked with Seniors in Government courses.

Foreign Languages Develop International Awareness.

The life, language and literature of German and Spanish speaking countries were taught to students by Miss Chiaramonte and Mrs. Clifford. (D) Audio-visual aids and supplementary textbooks were purchased this year for these departments. The language classrooms were kept well-decorated with posters, maps and colorful bulletin boards by students such as Jenny Egbers and Carol Simmons. (E) Not pictured is Mrs. Wolf, who teaches Latin.

Math Department Grows in 1973-74

The two veteran math teachers were Mr. Clifford and Mr. Ring, who taught Algebra, Geometry, and Modern Analysis (A). Teaching Living Math, Shop Math, and General Math were Mr. McCormick and Mrs. Sotka (C), both new teachers in the Highland System. Students performance in math was boosted through extensive use of individualized instruction and small group work. (B)

Business Instruction Prepares Students for Office Employment

Working closely to provide a well-rounded business course of study were Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. Bettes, and Mr. Rinker. (E) Many students spent half of the day in typing, shorthand, office practice and bookkeeping. Senior girls in office practice worked two modules per day on projects given them by teachers and organizations in the school. These girls worked independently, but under the supervision of Mrs. Bettes. (D)

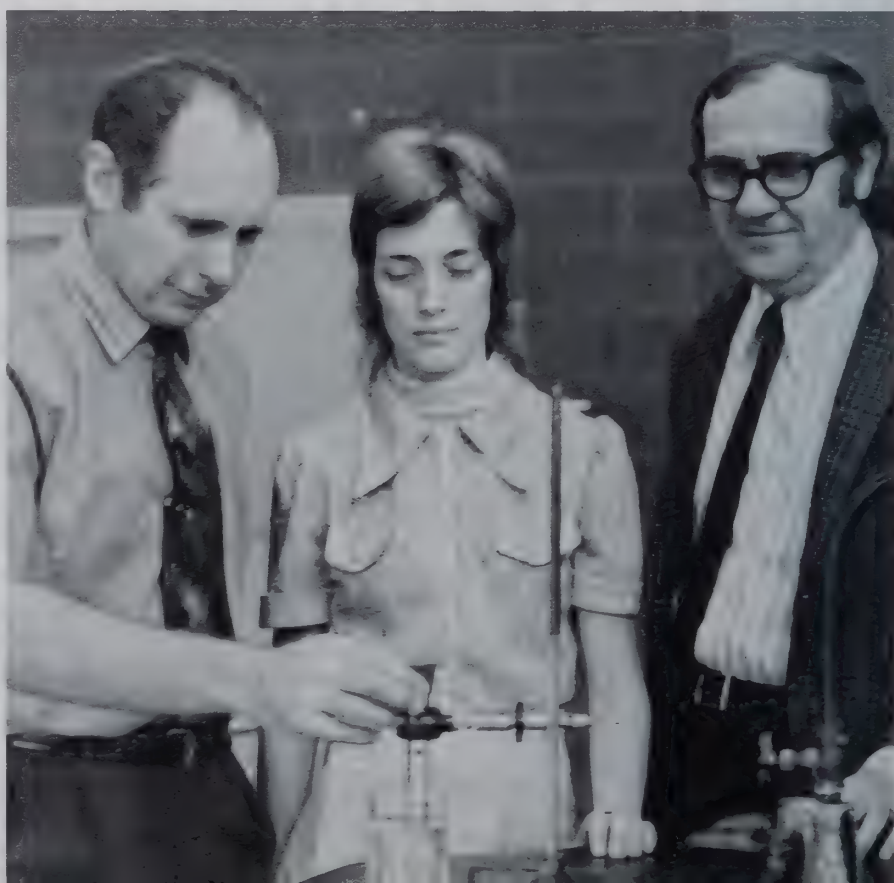

Science Dept. Teaches About Life Home Ec. Shows How To Live Comfortably

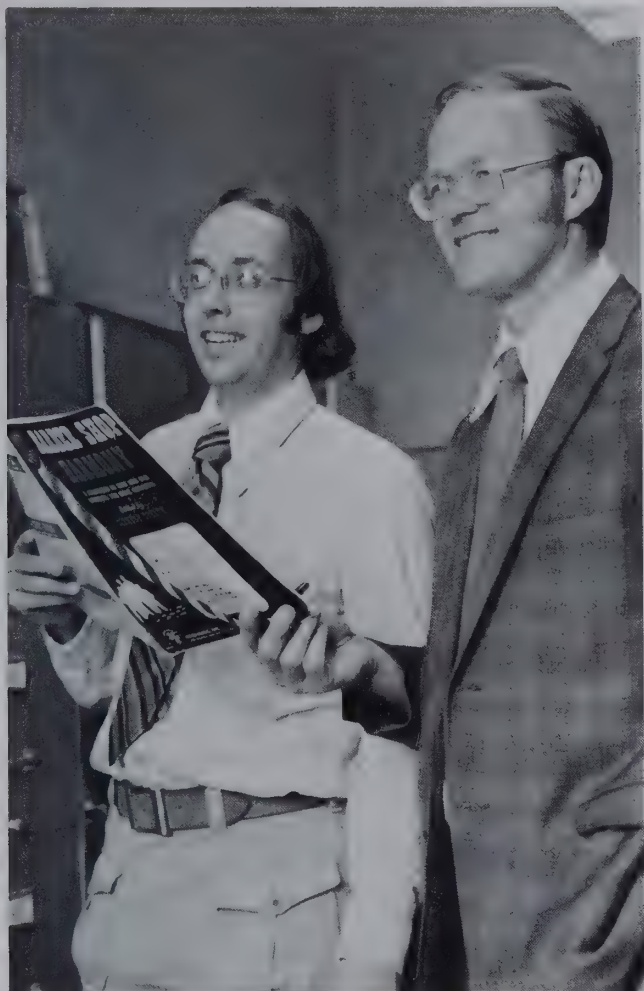

Two home economics teachers, Mrs. Tramonte and Mrs. Young, worked together in our sewing and foods labs with boys as well as girls. (B) As result more students were able to learn basic homemaking this year. A special treat for the student body were the cookies baked this year by the Home Ec. dept. for the Christmas Party. This department assisted at school functions by supplying refreshments. Our home economics rooms were decorated for the students. (A) Mr. Temple, Miss Friedstrom and Mr. Hostak opened the world of physical sciences for their students.(C)

Aesthetic Values Are Fine Arts Objective

Our music department was headed by band director, Mr. Terry Puehler and vocal music director Charles Ruddock. (D) New to this year's choral program are the Acapella and Symphonic Choirs. These groups together with the other music organizations produced concerts for the community and a Christmas Assembly for the student body.

Phys Ed. Dept. Adds Two New Teachers

The gym was in full use this year as all Freshmen, Sophomores and Juniors were taking Phys.Ed. (A) In addition to learning rules of sports and exercising, the girls practiced dance steps, as demonstrated by Miss Gowe. (B) Mr. Fraraccio taught the work study class. Students in this course of study spent part of their time in school and go out to jobs in the community for the rest of the day. (C) The Freshman boys went through rigorous exercising to get in shape for the sports they would practice. (D) All gym classes were led by Mr. Vodika, Miss Gowe and Mr. Poetter.

Vocational Dept. Trains Future Specialists

Mr. Nash and Mr. Bates, teachers of Graphic Arts and shop spent most of the day in the workshop area. (E) The students in G.A. classes helped to produce the schools newspapers and were responsible for filling printing orders for many local firms. The boys and girls enrolled in shop class learned from Mr. Bates that the ability to read and understand directions was as important as manual dexterity. (G) Mr. Harmon in addition to teaching Driver's Ed, instructed electronics students, using portable facilities owned by the school. (F)

Custodians, Cooks, and Busdrivers Keep Highland Running

Keeping our school clean and in good repair is the responsibility of the custodians. In the Highland kitchen, our cooks plan menus for all the Highland schools and make the food for the Junior High and High School. The Head Dietitian for Highland is Mr. Plummer. With the overcrowded schools, the administration extended our bus service to include 3 bus runs. This lessened the number of students per route and added more work for our bus drivers.

All theatrical productions have various sponsors called "Angels" In our play, the angels are our Advertisers and Patrons. Without them our production would not be possible. We need our angels just as much as we need our audience. We would like to thank all of them for making our play possible.

Ian Zumbrunnen. Editor. 1974 Highlander.

And so, our drama comes to a close. I would like to express my appreciation to all those who assisted in its production. To the Stars of the Show, thank you for adding brilliance to our set. To the Stage Crew, I thank you for your strength and devotion to the cause. The moral support, patience, and guidance from our Directors and Prompters, and the financial support from our Angels were, of course, indispensable to our production. To myself and my staff for our efficiency in rehearsals we present this trophy to you, the cast and the audience, our favorite people, we present the 1974 Highlander.

Ian Zumbrunnen
